

REPUBLIC OF SAN MARINO

KNIGHTHOOD

On June 2014, Jean Henri Lhuillier was conferred the rank of Official Knight of the Equestrian Order of Saint Agatha by the Department of Foreign Affairs in San Marino due to his seven years of active and consistent efforts to strengthen the bilateral relationship between San Marino and the Philippines.

Bestowed to foreign nationals who have positively contributed charitable and other services for the benefit of San Marino, the award is normally given by the Grand Mastership of the Equestrian Order of Saint Agatha of San Marino to individuals who have completed 10 years of service.

Inter-country Adoption Program

Consul General Lhuillier's efforts for the inter-country adoption agreement between San Marino and the Philippines produced successful outcome as two Sanmarinese families have already realized their dream of forming a family.

In return, orphans and abandoned Filipino children were given a chance to live a more "serene" life in San Marino through this adoption program.

He also started quarterly psychological workshop for soon-to-be adopted children to prepare and help them cope with the process.

Cultural Awareness Campaign

The Consulate promoted San Marino's rich culture and heritage by conducting series of cultural awareness campaigns in the Philippines.

Consul General Lhuillier hosted a permanent exhibition of San Marino products and souvenirs at the Consular Office, conducted educational seminars and museum tours for students, and held Italian language classes and film showing.

San Marino festivals were also celebrated in the country through the efforts of Consul Lhuillier.

The Consular Office also tapped social media sites to update Filipino netizens of the latest news and updates about San Marino.

Since his appointment as the first Honorary Consul General of the Republic of San Marino to the Philippines, Jean Henri D. Lhuillier has been implementing various projects and activities that have expanded and deepened the affiliation of both countries.

Relief Operations

On behalf of the Republic of San Marino, Consul General Lhuillier has also organized relief operations for victims of national calamities and has assisted various organizations and communities in need.

The Consular Office also conducts donation and charity events regularly.

Consular Corps Camaraderie

Consul General Lhuillier has been actively participating in the activities and projects of the Consular Corps of the Philippines (CCP).

He supported the group's various advocacy campaigns and attended CCP's regular meetings.
